

ANNOUNCEMENT OF OPPORTUNITY

NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory Navigator Program At Tennessee State University

SUMMER WORKSHOP
May 22 through July 23, 2005

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Freshmen, sophomores, juniors in Sciences, including Computer Science, Math, and Technology

A Great Learning Experience at NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory and Tennessee State University in Astronomy and related fields.
Study the radial velocity of stars, close binary stars, and Sun like stars in search of extra solar planets.
Travel to JPL to meet with the scientists, work at TSU with astronomers and return to JPL to report findings and results of the summer learning experience. There is an opportunity to apply for future
Summer programs at JPL

$375.00 stipend/week and all travel expenses to and from JPL

APPLICATION DEADLINE - JAN. 22, 2005

Application forms at http://coe.tsuniv.edu/nrts/nrts_0.html
In the left-hand column Click on 2005 Summer Program

E-mail questions to:
smith@coe.tsuniv.edu